

A Bold Confession

(Pastor Jim Fritsche)

Tune: Puer Nobis (On Jordan's Banks)

Pastor: A bold confession once was made
When Jesus asked a question clear

Congregation: "Who do the people say I am?"
"What are their thoughts? What do you hear?"

Pastor: "Some say you are the Baptist, John;
Elijah, or some prophet come".

Congregation: "But what of you," inquired the Lord,
"What say you of your own accord?"

Pastor: "You are the Christ", St. Peter said,
"The Son of God, the living One".

Congregation: "How blessed you are" the Lord replied,
"This truth revealed from God on high".

Pastor: The Lord invites us all to make
The bold confession of His name

Congregation: That all may know the truth profound:
The Savior of the world came down.

Congregation: Lord raise up workers for the fields
To tell the wonders of your love
And may their witness boldly made
Bring countless souls to heav'n above.

© Text copyright by Rev. James Fritsche. Permission granted for use by congregations in Lutheran Church-Canada. For permission to use this song in other settings, please contact the author at jefritsche@me.com

A Bold Confession

(Pastor Jim Fritsche)

Tune: Puer Nobis (On Jordan's Banks)

Pastor: A bold confession once was made
When Jesus asked a question clear

Congregation: "Who do the people say I am?"
"What are their thoughts? What do you hear?"

Pastor: "Some say you are the Baptist, John;
Elijah, or some prophet come".

Congregation: "But what of you," inquired the Lord,
"What say you of your own accord?"

Pastor: "You are the Christ", St. Peter said,
"The Son of God, the living One".

Congregation: "How blessed you are" the Lord replied,
"This truth revealed from God on high".

Pastor: The Lord invites us all to make
The bold confession of His name

Congregation: That all may know the truth profound:
The Savior of the world came down.

Congregation: Lord raise up workers for the fields
To tell the wonders of your love
And may their witness boldly made
Bring countless souls to heav'n above.